There are 10,982 advocates, solicitors and procurators in Italy whose gross incomes, according to the income tax returns, amount to $3,462,615, which gives an average income of about $315. Of these legal men, five profess to have an income of $6,000, eight of $5,000, sixteen of $4,000, seventy of $2,000 and 5,508 return theirs as under $200, which leaves a balance of nearly half the total number—5,375—to divide among them $2,087,015, which gives an average income to each of a little over $386. Architects and civil engineers fare still worse.

Every really able man, if you talk sincerely with him, considers his work, however much admired, as far short of what it should be.—Emerson.
